

times within 1 year of ethics violations. He was indicted in the State of Texas. He resigned.

Another Member of Congress is serving jail time for corruption. Abramoff, whose tentacles seem to go throughout this town, is in prison.

Trips to Scotland to play golf, lavish gifts by lobbyists, parties by lobbyists, free travel on airplanes, the legislation that passed the Senate eliminates all that. I have only given a brief capsule of the corruption in this town under Republican leadership. I have only given a brief capsule of what they have done to prevent our going to conference.

I want all of the Republicans to know, I am not going to ask again for unanimous consent to go to conference. When they get ready to go to conference, they can come to us.

But everyone should understand that prior to the August recess, we are going to complete ethics and lobbying reform. We are going to do it if we have to spend nights, weekends, take days out of our August recess. Everyone has had fair warning.

It takes a lot of time to overcome the hurdles they have placed in front of us, but we are going to do that. It will eat up valuable Senate time, but we are going to do it. We are going to complete lobbying and ethics reform. That was the first bill we placed on the agenda, ethics and lobbying reform, to try to have the American people feel better about their Congress and what we do.

I can still remember 9/11. I was in S-219. I was the first one in that room that morning. It was a Tuesday morning. It is when Senator Daschle held his leadership meeting. Senator Breaux came in and said: Flip on the TV, something is happening in New York. We could see one of the buildings burning.

Without elaborating in great detail, the leadership meeting started, someone came and got Senator Daschle. There was an evacuation of this building that took place. There was a plane heading toward the Capitol.

It would take someone living in New York to understand the horror of that day, I believe. But it was a horrible day. There was a 9/11 Commission appointed after great turmoil and consternation. The President fought that for a number of months. Finally, it was done, a bipartisan commission. They came back with recommendations. It has been almost 3 years and those have not been implemented.

We passed in the Senate, as one of our top priorities, implementation of the 9/11 Commission recommendations. Remember, that same commission graded the Bush administration on how they were implementing those recommendations: Ds and Fs.

With the legislation we passed, all As. Once again, the Republicans have stood in our way procedurally and will not let us go to conference. Yesterday someone came in and said: Well, I do not like what happens postaudit; we need to make sure that following the spending of those moneys the audit trail is appropriate.

So do I. So does every member of the Senate. We want this money spent wisely and properly. This is a diversionary, delaying tactic to stop us from doing this.

The President did not want the 9/11 Commission appointed in the first place. He wouldn't implement the recommendations. He is trying to stop the Congress from forcing him to sign a bill.

I will say the same thing on the 9/11 Commission recommendations that I said on ethics and lobbying reform. I am no longer going to come and beg the Republicans to do what is good for the country. It is up to them. When they get ready to do the 9/11 Commission recommendations, come to us and we will appoint conferees immediately and complete the conference within a matter of a couple of days.

Like ethics and lobbying reform, we are going to complete this before the August recess. Now, is that going to shorten the August recess? It is up to the Republicans. But we are going to complete this legislation. It is not right that two of the most important issues facing this country, ethics and lobbying reform—getting rid of the culture of corruption—and implementing the 9/11 Commission recommendations should not go into effect.

The 9/11 Commission recommendations, they are not just for the State of New York, they are for our country, to protect people in Las Vegas and Reno, to protect Hoover Dam, where millions of people cross that bridge every year, to make sure there is not some terrorist act, throwing something over that dam, disrupting power that is generated that goes, most of it, to California, or the water sources, most of which goes to California.

I think this is a very dangerous game the Republicans are playing, delaying the implementation of ethics and lobbying reform and the implementation of the 9/11 Commission recommendations.

POLICY OF OBSTRUCTION

Mr. SCHUMER. Mr. President, I wish to salute our majority leader, Senator

REID, for what he said. The bottom line is, these are two very important pieces of legislation.

The other side cannot come up with many substantive objections, none, as we have heard yesterday when they moved to block it. But they have had a policy of obstruct, obstruct, obstruct. Why, you might ask? How does it help a political party? How does it help a Senator to obstruct things that are motherhood and apple pie such as ethics and lobbying reform, the 9/11 Commission, things desperately needed, first by this town and second by the whole Nation and of course my State.

The answer is very simple. When you are divided, as the other side is on about every issue; when you can't lead, as yesterday's immigration bill showed, the President's No. 1 domestic priority—fewer than a quarter of the Senators on that side voted for it—there is only one answer that can unify; that is, obstruct.

There is one problem with that—there are two. The main problem is: It is wrong for America. It is wrong for America. The second is, it does not work politically. That is why we are seeing the fact that so many on the other side are so worried.

So I wish to salute our majority leader. I will—and I know all the Members on our side will—stand with him side by side. If we have to meet at 2 in the morning, if we have to go into the August recess to get these things done, we will.

The Senate gives the minority the power to lay down the gauntlet of cloture and filibuster. You cannot move unless you get 60 votes. Of course, we do not have them. But we are not powerless. The ability to push through those filibusters—even if it means some inconvenience for the Senators—is our right and I salute our majority leader for telling the other side, and more importantly the American people, we will use that right to move the Nation forward.

So I wish to thank our majority leader for doing this. It is the right thing to do. Everyone is put on notice. A little inconvenience for the Senators to make our country safe, to clean up the unethical swamp in Washington, it sure is worth it. I think the majority leader is absolutely correct. I hope the other side will not continue to obstruct. But if they do, we will get these things done because our country and the American people demand no less.

IMMIGRATION

Mr. SCHUMER. Mr. President, I would like to make one other point in morning business and talk about, very briefly, on the events of the day yesterday. Yesterday was a very sad day for America, in two instances, when an ideological extreme group set back our country on immigration.

On immigration, we had lots of prattling, lots of scare tactics. As a result, the immigration bill is paralyzed. That
